

Terre de Granite

Appellation

Produced on homogeneous soils of granite with large crystals, the Fleurie appellation is often referred to as "Reine du Beaujolais". The wines are characterized by great finesse and elegance, with aromas of iris and violets.

The Madonna hill overlooks the appellation and offers a breathtaking panorama of the vineyard. Recognized as AOP in 1936
Average altitude: 340 meters
Cultivation area : 871 ha.

Origin

Grapes picked at full maturity

Harvested by hand exclusively
Granite terroir
Manual pruning known as in a cup
Grape variety 100% black Gamay with white juice

Vintages & Tasting

Deep and expressive red color.

Intense nose of generous notes of candied fruit exalting beautiful and intense aromas of perfectly ripe fruit. Full and rich on the palate, warm, backed by melted and silky tannins, very good length in the mouth with a structure without excess.

Food & Wine Pairings

Farm poultry with cream and morels

Rabbit terrine with hazelnuts
Sautéed figs and Fleurie granita
Zucchini and goat cheese pie

Aging & Serving

Served between 15 et 17°C

Potential aging between 4 and 5 years in the cellar